AN ACT RESPECTING ACCESS TO DOCUMENTS HELD BY PUBLIC BODIES AND THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL
INFORMATION (RLRQ, c. A-2.1)

13. The right of access to a document produced by or for a public body and having been published or distributed is exercised by examining the document on the premises during regular working hours or by remote access or by procuring enough information to enable the applicant to examine or obtain the document where it is available.

Furthermore, the right of access to a document produced by or for a public body and that is to be distributed or published six months or less after the request for access shall be exercised by an applicant in one or more of the following ways:

- (1) examining the document on the premises during regular working hours or by remote access;
- (2) procuring sufficient information to enable him to examine the document where it is available or to obtain it at the time of its publication or distribution;
- (3) obtaining the document on loan, provided that that does not compromise its publication or distribution.

This section does not limit the right of access to a document distributed in accordance with section 16.1.

1982, c. 30, s. 13; 1990, c. 57, s. 5; 2001, c. 32, s. 83; 2006, c. 22, s. 7.

NOTICE OF RECOURSE

Pursuant to a decision rendered in accordance with the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information

REVIEW

a) Power

Article 135 of the Act stipulates that every person whose request has been denied in whole or in part by the person in charge of access to documents or of the protection of personal information may apply to the Commission d'accès à l'information for a review of the decision. An appeal may also be brought for a failure to respond within the applicable time limit.

The application for review must be made in writing; it may state briefly the reasons for which the decision should be reviewed (article 137).

The Commission d'accès à l'information may be reached at the following addresses :

Québec

575, rue Saint-Amable, bureau 1.10
Québec (Québec) G1R 2G4
Téléphone : (418) 528-7741
Télécopieur : (418) 529-3102

Montréal

500, boulevard René-Lévesque Ouest
Bureau 18.200
Montréal (Québec) H2Z 1W7
Téléphone : (514) 873-4196
Télécopieur : (514) 844-6170

b) Grounds

An application for review may be based on grounds pertaining to the decision, the time prescribed for processing the request, the mode of access to a document or information, the fees payable, or the application of Article 9 (personal notes written on a document, sketches, outlines, drafts, preliminary notes or other documents of the same nature which are not deemed to be documents held by a public body).

c) Time limit

The application for review must be made to the Commission d'accès à l'information within thirty (30) days of the date of the decision or of the time granted by the Act to the person in charge for processing a request (Article 135).

The Act specifically provides that the Commission d'accès à l'information may, for any serious reason, release the applicant from a failure to respect the thirty day time limit (Article 135).

APPEAL TO THE COUR DU QUÉBEC

a) Power

Article 147 of the Act stipulates that a person directly concerned may bring an appeal from a decision of the Commission d'accès à l'information before a judge of the Cour du Québec on any question of law or jurisdiction. However, such an appeal may only be brought with leave of a judge of the Cour du Québec. The judge shall grant leave if in his opinion the question ought to be examined in appeal.

b) Time limit and costs

Under Article 149 of the Act, the motion for leave to appeal must be filed in the office of the Cour du Québec, in Montréal or in Québec, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the decision of the Commission d'accès à l'information by the parties, and after notice to the parties and to the Commission. The costs of the motion are at the discretion of the judge.

The decision authorizing the appeal must mention only the questions of law or jurisdiction that will be examined in appeal.

c) Procedure

Under Article 150 of the Act, the appeal is brought by filing with the Commission a notice to that effect served on the parties, within ten (10) days from the date of the decision giving leave for the appeal. The filing of this notice is in lieu of service of notice on the Commission.
