

International organization and countries that have signed an international student mobility agreement at the university level

INFORMATIVE TABLE

The table below shows the number of exemptions granted to an international organization and countries that have signed an agreement with the Québec government.

Country	Total number of exemptions granted ⁱ	Undergraduate	Master's	Doctoral
Algeria	83	31	42	10
Belgium (Flemish community)	10	1	6	3
Benin	10	5	5	0
Brazil	20	0	0	20
Burkina Faso	27	16	10	1
Burundi	1	1	0	0
Cameroon	16	8	8	0
Chad	4	4	0	0
China	105	19 ⁱⁱ	66	20
Columbia (Icetex)	8	0	4	4
Congo (Brazzaville)	6	3	2	1
Côte d'Ivoire	43	21	19	3
Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC)	12	6	5	1
Djibouti	3	3	0	0
Egypt	20	10	5	5
Gabon	27	13	12	2

Country	Total number of exemptions granted ⁱ	Undergraduate	Master's	Doctoral
Germany (Bavaria)	5	1	3	1
Germany (DAAD)	5	1	3	1
Guinea	15	7	7	1
Haiti	38	13	19	6
Israel	5	2	2	1
Italy	10	1 ⁱⁱⁱ	6	3
Lebanon	47	23	20	4
Luxembourg	10	1	6	3
Madagascar	17	11	5	1
Mali	16	8	8	0
Mauritania	6	3	3	0
Mauritius	5	2	2	1
Mexico	50	0	30	20
Morocco	90	45	34	11
Niger	14	7	7	0
Peru	9	0	5	4
Rwanda	7	3	3	1
Senegal	52	25	25	2
South Korea	12	3	6	3
Spain (Catalonia)	10	1	6	3
Togo	8	4	4	0
Tunisia	65	7	39	19
Vietnam	13	4	5	4

International organization	Total number of exemptions granted	Undergraduate	Master's	Doctoral
Agence universitaire de la Francophonie (University Agency of La Francophonie) (AUF)	20	0	2	18

ⁱ Exemptions granted to students enrolled in English-language universities represent no more than 20% of all exemptions.

ⁱⁱ Since the Winter 2016 term, Chinese students admitted to the exemption program and enrolled in an undergraduate program have had to pay the same fee as Canadians who are not Québec residents. Since fall 2024, the applied fee corresponds to the preferential fee for Canadians who are not Québec residents.

ⁱⁱⁱ Since the Fall 2017 term, Italian students admitted to the exemption program and enrolled in an undergraduate program have had to pay the same fee as Canadians who are not Québec residents. Starting in fall 2026, the applied fee will correspond to the preferential fee for Canadians who are not Québec residents.