Your request *

This request to cancel your nomination as a proposed assistant may not be revoked once it has been approved by the Curateur public du Québec. All of the actions already taken by the Curateur public du Québec in conjunction with your nomination will then be considered null and void.

The request for recognition concerned will be definitively closed should you have been the only person proposed as an assistant. The person seeking assistance will at this point need to prepare and submit to the Curateur public du Québec a new request to have one or two other persons recognized as assistants.

Should another assistant also be proposed, the person seeking assistance shall be responsible for determining whether they wish to continue the process for recognition of the assistant whose nomination remains admissible.

I UNDERSTAND the scope and significance of the preceding and I HEREBY REQUEST that my nomination as a proposed assistant in the previously mentioned request for recognition be cancelled.
