

HOMESCHOOLING SCHEDULE

The following table outlines the regulatory steps for homeschooling. It indicates the actions to take and the dates to respect based on when you started the homeschooling process. A school year spans from July 1 of each year to June 30 of the following year.

Regulatory steps	Your child has been home since the beginning of the school year.	Your child stopped attending school during the school year.
Annual notice of intent  You can complete your notice of intent directly on the secure site . The information contained in the notice will be forwarded to your SCC or SB.	Send to the DEM no later than July 1.	Send to the DEM within 10 days of the last day on which your child attended school.
Learning project  You can fill out the form for the learning project directly in your child's file on the secure site.	Submission and implementation no later than September 30.	Submission and implementation within 30 days from the day on which your child last attended school
Monitoring meeting	Participation during the year (you and your child)
Status report  The information to submit for the status report can be discussed during the monitoring meeting.	Submission between the third and fifth month after the implementation of the learning project	Submission between the third and fifth month after the implementation of the learning project • If your child stops attending school between January 1 and March 31, you must submit the status report no later than June 15. • If your child stops attending school after March 31, the status report is optional.
Mid-term report  The information to submit for the mid-term report can be discussed during the monitoring meeting.	Submission between the third and fifth month after the implementation of the learning project	Submission between the third and fifth month after the implementation of the learning project • If your child stops attending school after December 31, the submission of the mid-term report is optional.
Completion report  You can fill out the form for the completion report directly in your child's file on the secure site.	Submission no later than June 15.
Evaluation of learning  You can create the portfolio directly in your child's file on the secure site.	Submission of conclusions from evaluations conducted • If you selected the portfolio as the evaluation method, you must submit it to the DEM no later than June 15. • If other evaluation methods were selected, you must send the conclusions of the evaluations conducted to the DEM no later than June 30.	