

Display openness to others

Examples of what students are expected to learn

- Welcome and respect ideas that are different from their own.
- Adopt respectful attitudes toward differences.
- Demonstrate signs of interest in the abilities, passions and tastes of others: ask questions, be curious, listen to the other person, discuss.
- View diversity as an asset.
- Understand the importance of respect and egalitarian relationships.
- Develop their capacity to co-operate:
 - contribute to team work
 - benefit from co-operative work
 - interact with an open mind in various contexts
- Show respect for others (e.g. never mock or ridicule them), even if they are different, or express themselves or act differently from what is expected based on certain social norms or stereotypes.
- Etc.

Contribution of the content to adopting prosocial behaviours

Demonstrating openness to others helps build egalitarian and positive interpersonal relationships, and develops the capacity to interact well socially. These concepts are key to the development of the competency Adopts prosocial behaviours.

Content-related glossary

DISPLAY OPENNESS TO OTHERS

Openness

Ability to consider new ideas or other opinions, and to accept opposing points of view. Being open means being welcoming, accessible, available and receptive.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

- For more information on the content related to the development of personal and social competencies
- To find ideas for turnkey structured educational interventions that are in line with the proposed content
- For training designed to help convey the content and establish conditions for implementing it with students
- For other resources and tools related to the content and to the implementation of actions designed to promote the well-being of young people

Resources available on Québec.ca