Additional Information

Conditions of eligibility

An internship is a supervised learning opportunity that is part of a vocational training, technical or university program offered at an educational institution recognized by the the Ministère de l'Enseignement supérieur. Internships have a pedagogical intent and include observation and competency acquisition and/or implementation in a workplace environment.

To learn more about the conditions of eligibility, amounts awarded for different types of programs and payment schedules, consult the website <https://www.quebec.ca/en/education/student-financial-assistance/intern-success-scholarship>. Alternatively you may contact your educational institution's student financial aid office.

Since amounts paid to you under this program are considered to be income for income tax purposes, you will receive a tax slip. Additionally, if you are a beneficiary of the Loans and Bursaries Program, you will need to report the amounts received in the Intern Perseverance and Success Scholarship for Various Programs line of your application for financial assistance. If you have already submitted your application, please fill out a Declaration of Change form using your student assistance file in order to amend the information you previously reported.
