HERE
I wear
my face covering

Wearing a face covering is mandatory*

*Are notably exempt from this requirement:
• children under the age of 10
• people with a significant disability that prevents them from wearing a face covering safely (e.g. those with severe cognitive difficulties or who are unable to put on or take off their face covering without help)